The Court made the following ORDER:

“This Civil Revision petition filed by the petitioner therein, aggrieved by the dismissal order dated 14-11-2003 passed in I.A.No.2454 of 2004 in O.S.No.62 of 2000 under Section –151 of C.P.C. on the file of the principal Junior Civil judge, Karimnagar, for grant of police aid. In pursuance of the decree passed in O.S.No.62 of 2000 when he tried to fix cement poles and barbed wire in order to protect the open land and the respondents/defendants, interfering with the suit land in an extent of 0-05 guntas in Sy.No.1317/A at Vavilapalli, which was opposed by the respondents by way of filing counter stating that there is no direction in the decree to dismantle any compound wall constructed by defendants in the suit land. Now the petitioner/plaintiff is trying to dismantle the wall, in order to serve the purpose only he filed the present petition. There is no mandatory direction under the decree to remove the wall.

On the other hand, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is not dismantling the compound wall, but he is fixing the cement poles with barbed wire to protect the open land, for that the respondents/defendants should not have raise any objection.

In view of the above, there shall be interim direction to give police protection only to fix the cement poles with barbed wire in order to protect the open land and it is further directed the petitioner not to dismantle the compound wall constructed by the respondents/defendants in the suit land.

Post the matter after summer vacation, 2004.”
